2. 25X1 Some aircraft have been withdrawn from the field since early August 1953.¹ On 2 September, there was no air activity. The hangars were closed. Only five MiG-15s and U-MiG-15s were parked in the northeastern section of the field. The preparations for night flying activity started at 6 p.m.

3. A wooden shed, 6 meters square, which was under construction, and three small tents were observed next to a set in the radar station northwest of the field.²

4. The following air activity and aircraft were observed at the field between 4 and 8 September:

4 September. At 4 p.m., four MiG-15s were observed aloft. One aircraft towed a sleeve target which was fired at by the other three aircraft. Three additional swept-back jet fighters took off at 4:15 p.m. One of them towed a sleeve target. Northwest of the field, attacks were made at the sleeve target. Discharges of aircraft armament could also be heard. A total of 23 MiG-15s and U-MiG-15s including the alert flight were parked at the field.

7 September. Between 10 p.m. and 11 p.m., 12 take-offs and landings by swept-back jet fighters were made. There was good visibility. The aircraft flew individually at large intervals. Their position lights were switched on. When the aircraft returned to the field, a searchlight located at the southern end of the runway illuminated the runway. Lamps were observed on both sides of the runway.

8. The Zerbst-Dobritz road along the southern edge of the field was blocked by wooden barriers and a ditch about 70 cm deep. A traffic sign at the intersection of the Zerbst-Dobritz and Zerbst-Pulspforde roads indicated that the Pulspforde road was blocked beginning at kilometer marker 4.5.

9. At 1:40 p.m. on 11 September, an officer with red-bordered golden epaulets and 8 soldiers with red-bordered black epaulets, all of them with artillery insignia, were observed leaving the airfield and proceeding toward the eight apartment houses on the Zerbst-Dobritz road, at the corner of Goethe Strasse. As the soldiers carried a 10-liter boiler, mess cans and three empty rucksacks [] they were on the way to pick up food. A sentry wearing black-bordered blue epaulets with aviation insignia was posted at the apartment houses. Ten female members of the Soviet Armed Forces were also observed along the road to the apartment houses. []

- 25X1 2. [] Comment. A Kniferest-type set and a Dumbo-type set were observed at the radar station on 10 June 1953. The Dumbo-type set is the only one still located there. []
- 25X1 []
- 25X1 3. [] Comment. According to available information, a light AA battery is located at the AA gun emplacement in the northwestern section of the field.
- 25X1 []
- 25X1 4. [] Comment. This radio installation was last reported in April 1953. It consists of two masts, 18 to 20 meters high and about 35 meters apart, and a two-wire antenna. The removal of the antenna system is possibly connected with the transfer of the regiment to Jueterbog.
